

Paloma

Salt and a lime wedge to rim the glass

2 oz. freshly squeezed grapefruit juice

1 tablespoon agave (or simple syrup or sugar)

1 tablespoon lime juice

2 oz. silver tequila

ice

Carbonated water

A thin slice of grapefruit for inside the glass and a wedge for the side

Wet the rim of the glass with the inside of the lime wedge. Dunk it quickly into a plate with salt and rim it lightly.

Add the grapefruit juice, agave, lime juice and tequila to the glass and mix until the agave is well incorporated. Place a thin piece of grapefruit into the glass.

Add the ice cubes and fill with carbonated water.

Garnish with a grapefruit wedge if you want. Enjoy!
